life is something to celebrate; it is a gift given to us for a myriad of reasons, including love. a gift is given to mean many things but mostly it is to be enjoyed. if life is given to be enjoyed, it should be thusly used and not wasted by worry, sorrow, and depression. these things are a part of life, appropriate only at times. life is yours to use as you please so make the most of it. when sorrow, worry, and depression occupy more than their allotment, remember that the sun shall set tonight and rise tomorrow morning, and if you're lucky, you'll watch the day end and the night begin, only to watch the night end and the day begin again.

Russ,
I wish I could have gotten to know you better (really). Good Luck in your new school. Remember me always. Love,
Jenny

Headmaster's Message

May I extend congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 1975. You young men and young women who are about to leave the hallowed halls of Wroxeter are among the finest of our graduates. For my part it seems that your graduation and departure has come very quickly. You have performed admirably while on campus and proudly represented Wroxeter throughout the community. Together we have seen the development of a College Prep Department, a strong athletic program, a strong music program, and now it is time for you to enter some of our leading colleges and universities throughout the country and complete your formal education. I know that each of you will be successful in your future service to your fellow man and most importantly as a citizen to your country. It has been my sincere privilege to have been associated with you and to watch you develop into America's finest. On behalf of the entire Duncan Family may I wish you every success and good fortune. As you carry part of Wroxeter with you in your hearts, always consider this your second home and come back to see us often. To each of you, goodbye and good luck.

George Hall Duncan, Jr.

I wanna sing the solo!

"Practice makes perfect." And boy, did we practice!

In its second year, the Wroxeter Symphonic Concert Band has reached incredible heights of achievement. Appearances in support of Wroxeter football games, the Drama Club's Christmas productions, "Band-Day" at the Naval Academy football game, and "Talent Night" were just a few of the informal "gigs" of the Band. Also, entertainment for the Marine Officers' Wives' Club luncheon, the Annapolis Rotary Club, and the Honor Societies' luncheon at the Bay Ridge Inn was furnished by the 35 members of this organization. But, the outstanding single performance by this group was at the St. John's College Auditorium during Wroxeter's first "Musical Delight." A fine crowd of music lovers filled the auditorium to see and hear the band along with Frank Scimonelli (guest artist) and Lt. Joseph Phillips (guest conductor - from the Naval Academy Band). The entire musical season has been a huge success, and a warm thanks must be extended to all of those involved in the hard work of making it so.

We're the top of the second "S". Anyone at home that you'd like to say "Hi!" to?

It doesn't hurt a bit . . .

Did you get my good side?

Chief Warrant Officer Michael Pesses
 . . . Concert Moderator

I didn't even write this, folks!

Many hard hours of practice went into preparation for all functions of the band. Overall, this labor was well appreciated and fully worth the effort.

Lt. Joseph Phillips . . . Guest Conductor

"Follow the bouncing ball."

At Womens' Brunch U.S.N.A.
 "You handsome devil!"

"The Wipeouts"

"The Other Half"

"Life's no box of chocolates!"

What's this gonna do to my image?

Is this how Doc Severson got started?

This is more fun than skippin' class.

Next week, we appear on "Ed Sullivan."

Band members excelled in areas diverse from their roles as musicians. Richard Haas is our finest example. As a National Merit Scholarship semi-finalist, he truly exemplifies the all-around Band member!

No speakka English!

A special thanks to Mr. Walls, Mr. Duncan, and all parents for their teamwork in the 74-75 season. Good luck in the coming years!
